Dear Friends and comrades,

Re: Joint meeting of Unions /Associations in LIC

This is further to our communication to you over phone / message on 7th May, 2015.

You are aware that the wage revision in LIC is due from 1.8.2012. Despite four rounds of discussions in the name of information sharing sessions no substantial progress is made in this regard but for an offer of 12.5% wage hike by LIC management, which does not meet the aspiration of employees nor reflects the paying capacity of our industry. Apart from this issue one more option for pension to the employees is crying for solution since last wage revision. In spite of a long wait by the employees the management's approach on these issues is nonchalant and insensitive. The patience of employees is wearing out.

In the present challenging situation all the unions/associations together should meet and decide the agitational programme with the perspective of intensified struggle to mobilise the employees.

In this background a meeting of all the unions in LIC is being organized at Bangalore on 14th May, 2015. The meeting will commence at 11.30 AM. We request you to attend the said meeting. In case if you are not in a position to attend the meeting due to pre occupation, you may depute one of your office bearers to the meeting.

We shall inform you the venue of the meeting in a couple of days. Kindly make your travel and stay arrangements at Bangalore.

We are sure of your positive response to the meeting. Kindly confirm the same.

With greetings,

Sd/-
