Sub:- All India Protest on 15 March 2018

Dear comrade,

The meeting of the Central Trade Unions held on 22 February 2018, decided to widen the campaign against the government policies and develop and intensify sectoral struggles while reiterating the resolve to intensify preparation for indefinite strike in the days to come.

It is decided to observe all India protest day on 15 March 2018 in solidarity with the striking Defence Production workers against anti-national privatization move and against the Anti-people Union Budget 2018-19.

The Detailed joint press statement on the decisions is attached along with.

All state committees and industrial federations are requested to start preparations immediately and make detailed plans to ensure effective campaign and participation in the programmes.

With greetings,

Yours fraternally,

Tapan Sen
General Secretary
