PRESS RELEASE

Three lakh Gramin Dak Sevaks (GDS) of the Postal Department are on indefinite strike from 22nd May, 2018. Around 1,29,500 post offices across the country remained closed due to this strike. All the Postal Unions have also extended their support to the strike of GDS. The Gramin Dak Sevaks are extra-departmental agents who are recruited by the Central Government to serve in the rural areas. More than 60% of the employees of the postal department are GDS and more than 80% of the post offices are GDS branch post offices.

The GDS are forced to go on indefinite strike as the Government at the Centre has failed to implement Kamlesh Chandra Committee Report on wage structure and the service conditions of these employees.

All India Insurance Employees' Association (AIIEA) expresses its solidarity to striking GDS and urges the Government of India to settle their long pending issues amicably at the earliest.

General Secretary.
